

Part Time Cook's Assistant

Supervisor: Head Cook

Are you an aspiring cook but unsure how to get your foot in the door to the foodservice industry? Are you looking for an opportunity to hone your customer service and culinary skills in a friendly, professional environment? Maplewood Richmond Heights School District is looking to add motivated people to its food service department for the 2020-2021 school year and beyond. We are a small district aiming to serve scratch-cooked, health-focused meals to students from Pre-K to 12th grade. We can provide a low-stress kitchen environment perfect for fledgling school nutrition professionals who wish to build their skill set and customer service techniques to expand their culinary knowledge. Also, we can offer employment with convenient day time hours and competitive pay. Please visit the link below to apply, or contact us directly for more information.
