

Mrs. Bailey's Students Share Reasons Why You Should Consider Buying a Brick!

Can you please buy a brick to build a playground for your child? (Thank you if you did.) I want you guys to buy a brick because the playground is boring and all you can do is play hide-and-seek and tag. Can you buy a brick? There is a lot of mud and a lot of people get mud on their clothes. Can you buy a brick? I'm hoping for a zip line because it reminds me of the two zip lines at Ryan Hummert Park. Can you buy a brick? It usually rains and then we can't play in the sandbox because it's too wet and the grown-ups say we can't go in the sandbox. That is why you should buy a brick to build a new playground

Do you want to make hundreds of children happy? Then buy a brick. Our playground is muddy and all we can play is tag. When it rains, the sandbox gets mushy and it's so, so, so boring. Swings, playhouses, slides, merry-go-rounds, tree houses, and sip lines are so cool. And you know everyone likes them. I love the zip line. They are fast. If we had one, it would be just like Ryan Hummert Park. That is why you should buy a brick.

Please buy a brick, if you want your child to be happier. With your money, we could buy two sets of monkey bars. You KNOW I love the monkey bars. They really remind me of Ryan Hummert Park. I can probably climb them in less than one minute. They're so fun. Your child can set records and get exercise which can be really, really fun for some people, like me. That's why you should buy a brick.

Buy a brick if you want your kids to have fun on the playground. When it rains, our playground looks like a mud pit. There is nothing to climb on. The preschool playground has a rope and a slide, but our doesn't. The houses are gone now and there is nothing to do. That is why you should buy a brick.

Buy a brick pretty, pretty please with a cherry on top because we have nowhere to hide. When it is raining, we have nowhere to cover us from the rain. Kindergarten has a playground slide, but we don't. That's why you should buy a brick.

Can you pretty, pretty please get a brick? Because the playground is so boring. We have nothing to play on. If you want your kids to have, please buy a brick to raise money for the new playground. Thank you because I was getting worried!

Can you please, please, please, please, please, please, please, please, please buy a brick because our playground is really boring. There is no slide, swings, monkey bars, or ladders. It is not fun at. at. at. at. at. at. at. all!!!!!!! Rocket ship Park is fun because it has swings. I would like swings. That is why you should buy a brick.

You should buy a brick because our playground is so, so, so boring. All you can do is play tag and I get so tired when I run. If you buy a brick, a zip line could be made. You could help 18 classes! Please, please, please buy a brick. Hazel Brenner

Can you buy a brick? I am just a little girl and the playground is so boring. If you buy a brick, we could get a zip line, a tree house, two seesaws, a rock wall, and playhouses. That is why you should buy a brick.

You should buy a brick because our playground is so boring. So, bring some money so we can buy swings, a little tree house, and a zip line. We really need swings because swings go up and down. I like tree houses with a slide. I like sip lines because they go fast. And that's why you should buy a brick.

You should buy a brick because ECC needs a new playground. There isn't anything to climb on and there isn't really anything to play with. That's why you should buy a brick.
